

Sharing a Friday night or Shabbat service and Kiddush is a wonderful opportunity to support our congregations, build community, share in the simcha of a birthday, anniversary or graduation, and offer comfort to those observing a yahrzeit.

Honor Family & Friends with a KIDDUSH

Temple Beth El and Congregation Shaarey Tphiloh are partnering to offer Kiddush refreshments on Shabbat and holidays.

There are several ways you can sponsor a Kiddush:

- Prepare the Kiddush yourself:
Share your love of Shabbat and your favorite Shabbat recipes by preparing refreshments for Kiddush. All food prep must be done in the TBE kitchen, and should be coordinated through the TBE office. TBE will set up and serve.
- Let Temple Beth El & Shaarey Tphiloh organize the Kiddush for you. We offer three types of sponsored Kiddushes:
 - A Standard Kiddush ($50 for Friday night, $75 for Shabbat morning)
Our typical weekly refreshments. This consists of challot from TBE's Pop-up Challah Shop, cheese, crackers, veggies and hummus, fruit, and dessert. On Shabbat morning, we also include gefilte fish and herring,
 - A Deluxe Kiddush ($100 for Friday night, $125 for Shabbat morning)
This consists of everything in a Standard Kiddush, along with tuna salad, additional dips or prepared salad such as baba ganoush or tabouleh (one on Friday night, two on Shabbat morning), nicer desserts, dried nuts or fruit, and lemonade or iced tea, with challot from TBE's Pop-up Challah Shop. Shabbat morning will also include an additional appetizer such as egg salad.
 - A Premium Kiddush ($200 for Friday night or Shabbat morning)
Includes all of the above plus Deviled Eggs, bagels from Union Bagel Co., 3 lbs. of Kosher Lox, and cream cheese.

Kiddush sponsorship also helps underwrite our regular weekly Kiddushes so that we can continue to serve delicious food on Friday nights and Shabbat mornings throughout the year.

For more information and to reserve a date to sponsor a Kiddush, please contact the TBE office at least a week in advance at tel. 774-2649 or email office@tbemaine.org.
